2009-10 ANNUAL REPORT

Elks
National Foundation, Inc.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ENF BOARD

Dear Friends:

Share. Give. Join. Over the past year, this has become our mantra as we sharpen our focus on a central goal driving our current strategic plan: Inspiring our scholarship recipients to become champions of the Order.

We want our scholarship recipients to:

- ▶ Share their stories with us and, in turn, with you.
- ▶ Give their time to the Elks and/or make donations to the Foundation.
- ▶ Join the Order.

To accomplish these objectives, we are working hard to energize our involvement with our Elks scholars. We want to be seen as more than the name on a check. So, we've created new opportunities for the students to interact and get involved with us in ways that highlight our shared values.

One important value we have in common is community service. It's a hallmark of the Elks, and it's also a criterion in our Most Valuable Student and Legacy Award scholarship contests. The Elks work to build stronger communities and today's students who win our scholarships are eager to make a difference in the world. It's a natural partnership.

We're also building a strong sense of community among our Elks scholars by enabling them to interact with one another and expand their personal networks. Elks scholars are now getting together to study, socialize, and share their ideas and ideals, as well as perform community service in the name of the Elks.

This year's report offers an excellent overview of our scholar relations program, which has been in place now for almost two years. Our efforts are starting to pay off, as evidenced by more and more scholars who recognize the Elks family in their personal comments and thank-you notes.

We're changing how today's successful students—and tomorrow's leaders—view the Elks. We don't just write their checks. We're partners in their collegiate experience, their community service, and beyond. As their new relationship with the Elks continues to develop, we believe that our scholars will start to see us as the organization they'd like to join.

Thanks so much for your loyal support. I hope you enjoy reading "Share. Give. Join."

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Robert J. Sabin, Chairman
ENF Board of Trustees

LEARNING THE MISSION: ELKS SCHOLARS GET INVOLVED AND GIVE BACK

For nearly 80 years, thousands of students have gone to college thanks to the generous contributions of Elks around the nation. On their behalf, the Elks National Foundation awards more than $3.64 million in college scholarships each year.

Scholarships are a vital investment in educating the nation's students. But recent efforts by the ENF have further accelerated the donors' return on their investment. With the help of an advisory board of scholars, the ENF is using the scholarship programs as a springboard to inspire Elks scholars to join together, get involved and give back. Through the Elks Scholar Advisory Board, student scholars are volunteering their time and talents in communities nationwide, while preparing to become tomorrow's leaders in Elks Lodges.

"The ENF scholar relations program not only engages our Elks scholars but also introduces them to the lifelong opportunities of Lodge membership and serving in their communities. We believe that Elks scholars and alumni will become a dynamic and influential national network representing the Elks and supporting our important mission of helping Elks build stronger communities," says Assistant Director Debbie Kahler Doles.

SHARE. GIVE. JOIN.

Established in 2009, the Elks Scholar Advisory Board is led by Elks scholars who have been awarded a Most Valuable Student scholarship, Legacy Award or an Emergency Educational Grant. Board member responsibilities include monthly online meetings and attending the annual Scholar Advisory Board meeting held during the Grand Lodge Convention in July.

ERIKA BARGER

2006 Legacy Award

Sponsored by
Ormond Beach, Fla.,
Lodge No. 2193

Elks Scholar Advisory Board: Senior
Representative

Class of 2010, Georgetown
University, B.A.,
Government & History

ADVANTAGE: "I'm deeply grateful for my Legacy Award, which helped me to attend Georgetown and volunteer for many great causes, including visiting wounded soldiers at Walter Reed Army Medical Center."

IMPACT: "In December 2008, I became a fourth-generation member of the Elks, joining my father, grandfather, great-grandfather and both of my brothers. I currently serve as my Lodge's government relations chair."

AHEAD: "I'll enter the Stetson University College of Law in Gulfport, Fla., to pursue my law degree. It is my intention to remain a member of the Elks throughout my life and to do my best to promote Elks programs."

"We've charged the Advisory Board members with implementing new scholar initiatives and brainstorming ways to encourage all Elks scholars to give back by sharing stories, giving their time and joining the Order," says Kahler Doles.

In 2009, the Board's leadership included these outstanding students:

► Jacob Wellman, University of New Mexico, president (see profile on page 4).

► Alison McQuade, graduate of Salve Regina University, secretary – 2005 EEG, sponsored by Springfield, Mass., Lodge No. 61.

► Prateek Kumar, Harvard University, scholar outreach committee chair – 2007 MVS, sponsored by Colonie, N.Y., Lodge No. 2192.

► Jennifer Swartz, Kettering College of Medical Arts, at large representative – 2007 MVS, sponsored by Middletown, Ohio, Lodge No. 257.

► Clara Ritger, University of Notre Dame, freshman representative – 2009 James A. Vecchio MVS, sponsored by La Habra, Calif., Lodge No. 2095 and Minden/Douglas, Nev., Lodge No. 2670.

"I applied to join the Advisory Board because I wanted to give back, and I also wanted to play a role in building stronger ties among some of America's best and brightest students," explains Kumar.

By connecting Elks scholars nationwide, the ENF further promotes student service through such activities as the Elks Scholar Week of Service. During the 2010 event, held April 18 to 24, Elks scholars in 13 different locations supported the cause of "community clean-up." Here are just two examples:

► Cambridge, Mass.: Harvard Elks scholars created a community garden outside one of Harvard's residence halls, planting everything from onions to tomatoes. The garden's harvest will be shared among Harvard students and faculty, as well as the nearby community.

► Washington, D.C.: Six Elks scholars from Georgetown University participated in the Wall Washers project. They cleaned both sides of the 164-foot Korean War Veterans Memorial, washing 19 steel statues and granite slabs. "I loved being able to wash the memorial in order to do my own small part to say thank you to our troops," says Emily Gaard, a 2006 Legacy Award recipient.

PARTNERS IN SERVICE

Elks scholars are passionate about service—it's one of the criteria for the MVS and Legacy Award scholarships. The ENF wants scholars to view the Elks as partners in their service. The ENF awards four $500 Cornerstone Grants annually to scholars and alumni who wish to expand their service.

Recent Cornerstone Grant recipients include:

► Deanna Cettomai, 2001 MVS scholar, who supports the JACQUES Café: Food for Thought, a coffee shop in Ravenna, Ohio, where residents living with HIV can socialize and get support. She will purchase appliances and supplies to improve the café.

► Shawn Domanic, 2006 MVS scholar, who volunteers for the Commonwealth Tenants Association's after-school program. He will purchase books and art supplies to enhance activities for the children in Brighton, Mass.

Allison Barr, 2006 MVS scholar, uses Cornerstone Grant funds to promote healthy living to kids at her local YMCA.

JACOB WELLMAN

2008 MVS Scholarship

Sponsored by
Albuquerque, N.M.,
Lodge No. 461

Elks Scholar
Advisory Board:
President, Junior
Representative

Class of 2012
University of New Mexico
Major: Political Science &
Sustainability Studies

ADVANTAGE: "The MVS Award has lessened my financial pressures, so I've been able to get more involved. I started a fraternity to reform Greek life at UNM and organized a student co-op grocery store on campus."

IMPACT: "Through the launch of national programs like the Elks Scholar Week of Service, we've had an impact on Elks Scholars across the country. The Elks provide me with a positive role model."

AHEAD: "I plan on going to law school and helping to create national policies to address major problems facing society."

The ENF also recognizes an Alum of the Year—one outstanding Elks scholar alum who demonstrates a commitment to volunteering. The 2009 Alumnus of the Year was Christina Vuocolo, a 2001 MVS scholar. She was able to give back by joining with college friend and NBA athlete Randy Foye to launch the Randy Foye Foundation, an organization in Newark, N.J., dedicated to inspiring youth to follow their ambitions.

Through scholarships and grants, the Elks are helping bright students across the country become better prepared to be future leaders in our communities and worldwide.

“As the president of the Elks Scholar Advisory Board, I have been part of a national network of students committed to leadership in both community service and academic achievement. This experience makes me proud to be an Elks scholar and taught me a great deal about leadership,” says Wellman. “The Elks will continue to influence me as a student and beyond.”
