Greetings Lodge Members,

May is here and hot summer is just around the corner.

Grand Exalted Ruler Randy P Shook has requested all Lodges set aside May 1-7 as "Elks National Youth Week". I would like to thank Mike Michelson for getting a Proclamation for Youth Week from Senator Mike Bernskoetter and Certificate of Recognition from Governor Michael Parson.

Saturday May 4th is the JC Elks Lodge BBQ Rib Cook-off and Kentucky Derby Party, come out for a fun day at the Lodge.

Northeast District Vice President Jennifer Foster will be visiting our Lodge and attending our Lodge meeting on the evening of May 14th. Come out and show your support.

State President Jim Ross will make his official visit to our Lodge June 1st to attend the 125th Anniversary Celebration.

The Kids Fishing Derby is scheduled for Saturday June 8th, for kids ages 5-16. Come out and enjoy the event. Volunteers are needed.

Flag Day is scheduled for Sunday June 9th at 11:00AM. We are working to get the Veterans from the VA Hospital to the Lodge for the ceremony and lunch.

In closing, something is always going on at the Lodge, so don't miss out. Check our Facebook group JC Elks 513, the Bulletin Board at the Lodge, and the newsletter calendar for upcoming events.

Respectfully,
Steven Green, ER

May 18th — Bingo

May 30th — Catered Lunch

16 veterans enjoyed the Bingo game on April 20th. Thank you to Donna Otto and Bob Aegerter for being available to help. At times we have several veterans who need assistance with the game. One Elk calls Bingo and that leaves just two of us to assist several veterans. We really do need more help for that visit to the VA. Just a reminder that it's only a bit over two hours once a month. If you can help out anytime feel free to call me, 573-644-2194. We will be going to the VA for a catered lunch on May 30th. If you can join us, we leave the lodge at 11:00 and return by 2:00.

We have invited the veterans to join us at the lodge for Flag Day June 9th which always makes that a very special occasion. Hopefully, several Elks will make it to the ceremony and spend some time with these heroes. The ceremony will be held indoors and lunch will be served following the ceremony.

Military Observances:

Military Appreciation Month — May honors Men and Women currently serving in the Armed Forces.

May 1st — Silver Star Service Banner Day. Recognizes recipients of the Silver Star Medal.

VE Day — Commemorates the US's Victory in Europe WWII.

Armed Forces Day — Third Saturday in May. Honors all individuals currently serving in the Armed Forces.

Memorial Day — Fourth Monday in May. Honors all those who have died during service to the United States.

Contact Eileen at 573-644-2194 if you would like to volunteer at the VA Hospital. Give it a try and see if this volunteer opportunity is for you.

Respectfully submitted,

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY BULLET POINTS

The full policy will be pinned on the bulletin board.

At all times refrain from posting any materials that are insulting, defamatory, discriminatory, or that could in any way have the Elks (or any of its Members) viewed in a negative light or bring the risk of liability against the Elks, any subsection of the Elks, or its Members, under its umbrella.

1. Be respectful to others.
2. Always maintain and protect the confidentiality of the Order and the privacy of those asking or receiving aid from the Order.
3. Always protect the good names of our Members and their families.
4. Always assume that the last person that you want to read a posting, will have access to the posting and will read it.
5. Use social media as a means to spread the message of Elkdom.
