DOCUMENTS for Members of Lakewood Lodge 1777

For Members to Propose a New Member:

You can download and print out a blank application form (a) or fill your information on (b) and print it. Be sure to print eligibility page to give to the applicant along with the application.

- a. Down load and print this application. As the proposer you are to fill in the top portion. Note the top line is for your name as the proposer and the second line down and left of the Signature of Proposer is for you to put in your applicant's name.

- b. When you click on this application option, you will be presented with the same application form but with the ability to type in the text needed for the application. Neither the outlined boxes nor the print button will show when you print the document. You may complete the document with the applicant or just complete the top portion as the proposer, print and give the printed application to the applicant to complete.

“Eligibility Page” In both a. and b. above you need to click on this line to download and print the eligibility information and give to your applicant before they complete the application.
