EXALTED RULER’S MESSAGE

As I write this message, the Grand Lodge Convention in Austin, Texas, is a recent memory. I find myself touring several western states by motorcycle. (Even the Exalted Ruler needs some time off now and then) one aspect of long hours in the saddle is time to think, to reflect...

One thought is the experience gained where more than 6,000 Elks and guests from all 50 states attended the 159th Grand Lodge session, where they learned of the past year’s successes by the Elks National Drug Awareness Program, the Elks National Veterans Service Commission, and the Elks National Foundation. What a great opportunity to meet other officers, learn from them and bring that information back to Merced where it can be applied in moving our Lodge forward in Elkdom and helping our community.

Here is another thought in the form of a question: What is the “secret sauce” that makes Merced Lodge #1240 work. Answer: Volunteerism. Every program we have depends on volunteers to get the work done and accomplish its goals. Every Lodge Night meal, every charity event, every Bingo night, every 50/50 drawing, every new idea, and every fundraiser we put on depends on volunteers. Luckily, we have a solid core of members that support these causes.

I ask those members who have not yet volunteered to step up with just two hours of your time dedicated to a Lodge function. How, you ask? Speak with other members or Officers, let them know you would like to be more involved. Another resource is the list of programs and chairpersons that appear from time to time in the Antlers. Contact a chair and ask to be involved. Or how is this.... Before an event, show up early and ask to help.

Which brings me to our fireworks booth this year. Chairing the fireworks booth is of course the key position in this fundraiser. Billy Avery and Ryan Williams accepted to co-chair this event. There were many who staffed the booth during a nearly unbearable heat wave, I don’t have room to name them here, but thank you.

Elk of the Month

Ryan Williams

Ryan went above and beyond with his time and personal resources in supporting the Fireworks Booth.

Fraternaly,
Jeff Horta
Exalted Ruler

FUN DAY AT KIDDIELAND & APPLGATE ZOO FOR SPECIAL NEEDS CHILDREN

By: Dr. Donald Gumm, PDDGER
Drug Awareness Chairman & ENF Grants Coordinator

On June 21, 2024, our Lodge held a special day for Merced County Office of Education (MCOE) special needs students with moderate to severe disabilities. There were 90+ sign-ups for this event. Students & staff came from classrooms located all over Merced County. School buses, vans, and cars started to arrive at Applegate Park at 7:30 AM. When they checked-in at the event registration desk, they received their Merced Elks drug awareness wristbands, snacks, drug awareness coloring books, and bookmarks. The wristbands allowed them free admission to Kiddieland for unlimited rides, a free delicious lunch cooked and served by Merced Elks, entrance to the photo booth with a free photo, access to the Merced Elks Drug Awareness booth to make their own personalized anti-drug design which were turned into a free badge to wear, and free admission to the Applegate Zoo. Free bottled water was provided at the park during the entire event.

This project was funded by the Merced Elks BINGO, Merced Elks Bikers for Challenged Children, Merced Elks Park, and an Elks National Foundation (ENF) grant. A thank you to PER Len Samuelson, Chairman of the BINGO committee, Mark Theofanides, Chairman of the Elks Park Committee & George Mora, Chairman of the Bikers for Challenged Children for obtaining the donated funds. Thanks to all the members of these 3 committees for their donated volunteer hours to make the funding available for our special needs children. Thanks to all our Lodge members who donate to ENF, which makes our Lodge qualify for ENF grants. And a special thank you to our Club manager Jesse Reynolds and all of our officers & members who woke up early and donated their time during the event day: Exalted Ruler Jeff Horta, Leading Knight, Lead Chef, Supervisor Jim Pacheco, Jr, Loyal Knight Patty Brown, Lecturing Knight Vickie Munson, Chaplain Miranda Hendrickson, Trustee Ryan Williams, Secretary Jane Lozano, Jim Pacheco, Sr, Debi Watson, Charlie Fryar, Mary Fryar, Donavan Sizemore, George "Cheech" Mora, Ellen Burk, Frank Semonelli, Deanna Cozzi, Glenn Galman, Kevin McBride, John Curry, Cindy Rose, Diana Diliberto, Diana Hawkes, Tom Souza, Susan Gumm, and Project Chairman Dr. Donald Gumm.
