The first round of bricks have been installed on our Terrace Bocce Patio? You can memorialize a loved one, salute a veteran or just leave your own permanent legacy for future generations of Elks. Applications are available in the members lounge or you can download one from our Lodge website. Get your orders in today.

Members are reminded that you should use your membership card each time you enter the Lodge. The bell is there for visitors and the bartender on duty is the only person authorized to admit them into the lounge. Anyone you bring or let into the Lodge is considered YOUR GUEST and you are responsible for them. While we encourage members to bring guests to the Lodge, after three visits they should be given a membership application.

If you don't have an elks.org login, you should consider signing up for one. It's free to members and there's a wealth of great information available on the Grand Lodge site in addition to games, virtual pins and other fun stuff.

Share the Gift of Elkdom Be a Proposer

You're a member of this great organization because someone thought highly enough of you to sponsor you for membership. Do you have a friend or relative who you feel would be an asset to our Lodge? Of course you do, why not give them a membership application? With one gesture you can give your Lodge the gift of growth and give a friend a gift of fellowship that will last them a lifetime.

On Saturday September 14th the Saugus-Everett Elks #642 Drug Awareness Committee participated in the Town of Saugus Founders Day Celebration.

It was a successful event with over 200 people visiting their booth. The committee supplied handouts and pamphlets

Joke of the Month

A local bar was so sure that its bartender was the strongest man around, that they offered a standing $1,000 bet.

The bartender would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass, and hand the lemon to a patron. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice out would win the money.

Many people had tried over time (weightlifters, longshoremen, etc.) but nobody could do it.

One day a scrawny little man came in, wearing thick glasses and a cheap suit, and said in a tiny, squeaky voice, "I'd like to try the bet."

After the laughter had died down, the bartender said okay, grabbed a lemon, and squeezed away. Then he handed the wrinkled remains of the rind to the little man.

But the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man clenched his fist around the lemon and six drops fell into the glass.

As the crowd cheered, the bartender paid the $1,000, and asked the little man, "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weightlifter, or what?" The man replied, "I work for the IRS."

Heard a good one? Send it to the Secretary and your joke could be published in next month's bulletin.

Are you getting the most from your membership? Our Entertainment Committee plans so many fun events for members each month. We also have many opportunities to serve our local community through our various committees. You'll get out of Elkdom what you put into it.
