

Sebring Elks Supported the Sebring Pumpkin Festival

On Sunday, October 20 downtown Sebring was rockin' and rollin'!! This year the Sebring Elks Lodge participated in the event which is made possible through the Sebring Children's Museum. The lodge was a major sponsor for the Children's Business Fair part of the festival. Sixty businesses were planned by children, and they had the opportunity to display and market their products. Joe Stockenberg, Exalted Ruler and Diane Morse, Leading Knight assisted in judging each child's small business. Harry Havery was on hand playing music for all to enjoy.

The lodge also distributed 250 goody bags to children in observance of Red Ribbon Week and as part of the Elk's Drug Awareness Program. Elroy the Elk was on hand to welcome the kids, and adults visited the Elk tent. Sebring Lodge Past Exalted Rulers were seen scurrying around distributing materials to both the adults and kids. The Sebring Elk's sponsorship of this program was made possible through monies received through the Gratitude Grant and the Elks National Foundation. Pictured with Elroy the Elk are Past Exalted Rulers for the Sebring Lodge: Wainetta Holmes, Sam Schroeder, Judy Hanson and Jonathon Spiegel.
