Volume 80

No. 08

FROM THE DESK OF THE EXALTED RULER

Greetings.

November ushers in the onslaught of one of the busiest times of the year for the Lodge. We'll kick it off with a salute to our Veterans on November 11th. We are forever grateful to our veterans for their service, dedication and sacrifice. Remember to thank a veteran this month. You can also get involved in serving our veterans dinner on November 11th. Call the office for details.

November is a time to give thanks for the many blessings we have been given over the years. I personally am thankful for our Board members who give so much time and energy to making this Lodge run by the many things they do behind the scenes and putting on new and exciting events. I am also thankful for our staff whose hard work and dedication keep things going and make our Lodge a great place where people feel welcome. I would be remiss not to thank our volunteers who we simply would be lost without. Thank you!! Be sure to vote!

Fraternally

Richard Robinson — Your Exalted Ruler

Instructions to Publishers

1. Complete and file one copy of this form with your return annually on or before October 1. Prepare a copy of the publication form for your records.
2. In cases where the publisher of a publication is a foreign individual or firm, include the name of the person or corporation to whom the return is being filed. Also include the name of the person or firm to whom all distribution orders should be sent. If the return is filed by a corporation, give the name and address of each shareholder. If owned by a partnership or other unincorporated firm, give the name and address as well as the name and address of each individual owner. If the publication is published by a requestor, give the name and address of the requestor. If the publisher is a foreign individual, manager, or other person, include the name and address of the person to whom the return should be sent.
3. Be sure to furnish all necessary information in item 11. This information must be furnished to the post office.
4. Item 10. Copies not furnished must be made (1) unreturned copies referred to the publisher, (2) unreturned copies from news agents, and (3) copies for libraries, schools, hospitals, and all other copies not distributed.
5. If the publication had Periodicals Publication as its general publication, the Statement of Ownership, Management, and Circulation must be published, i.e., printed or printed in 48 copies, plus primary mailed distribution if provided not later than October 10 for publications issued more frequently than weekly, or no later than October 11 for publications issued weekly or less frequently, but more frequently than monthly, or to the Postmaster's primary mailed distributor if provided after October 1 for all other publications.
6. Item 16. Check the box if electronic copies are being distributed in print form and electronic and computer files. This through 8.
7. Item 17. Check the box if the issue number in the Statement of Ownership will be published. If applicable.
8. Item 17 must be signed.

Failure to file or publish a statement of ownership may lead to suspension of periodicals authorization.

Chimes of Memory

Gary Anderson

Wherever Elks may roam, whatever their lot in life may be, when their hour falls upon the dial of night, the great heart of Elkdom swells and throbs. It is the golden hour of recollection, the homecoming of those who wander, the mystic roll call of those who will come no more. Living or dead, an Elk is never forgotten, never forsaken. Morning and noon may pass them by, the light of day sink heedlessly in the West, but ere the shadows of midnight shall fall, the chimes of memory will be peeling forth the friendly message, "to our absent members."
