EXALTED RULER

Simon Coombs

FIDELITY

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we go to press we've just wrapped up another very successful Lobsterfest. It's a huge event for us and kudos goes to Jo Lamoreaux and the army of volunteers that make it all happen.

While these big events are important for the lodge, it's the smaller things that keep the lodge running week in, week out. Our Friday night dinners stand out, but I'm also glad to welcome increasing numbers of you on our Thursday meeting nights, Saturdays for BratBurgers, and on Sunday mornings for breakfasts. Of course, we're also happy to see members and non-members alike for Jazz Club and the Big Band Alumni.

Once again, we're open on Monday evenings. There's a group that play card and board games and others that simply come in for a drink and a chat. But the football season gets underway in September, and we hope those of you who are sports fans will also join us for Monday Night Football games.

Every visit you make to the lodge, every drink and every dinner you buy, all contribute to the health of the lodge and our ability to continue the good work we do not only in the local community but at a state and national level.

So come on out and join us soon!

I'll look forward to seeing you,

Fraternally Yours,

Simon Coombs
Exalted Ruler

ESTEEMED LOYAL KNIGHT

Celeste Canino

JUSTICE

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

With Labor Day right around the corner, we close out what was a very hot but fun-filled Summer with many activities that went on at the lodge.

But now I am really looking forward to Fall, it's my favorite season. I love the smell of a pumpkin scented candle burning!

It's that time of year we put away our white tuxedos and bring out our black ones for initiations. There are many more activities coming up at the lodge and I hope you'll join us for them.

And start preparing your costumes, everyone! Is it too early to be thinking about Halloween?

Fraternally Yours,

Celeste Canino
Loyal Knight

CHEA President Marty Mello Visitation June 8th 2024

And Promote it we did! The Metropolitan District and Canoga Park Elks lodge 2190 hosted the CHEA Presidents visitation this year on Saturday June 8th, and our team knocked it out of the park once again. What a spectacular and fun evening. After spending a good 6 hrs. at Warner Brothers Studio taking their tour CHEA President Mart Mello with his First Lady Debra and the “Promoter” AVP Team made their way to Canoga Park Elks lodge where we were greeted by our E.R. Simon Coombs and Lodge Events Chair Bobbie Strelow

Cocktails were abound and plentiful as well as the appetizers. The Dinner was fantastic! a mouthwatering delicatessen served was boneless beef short ribs with mashed potatoes, and for those that could not have beef, Salmon was the choice. Great listening music was provided by Randy and Linda Lewis. The room was decorated to the nines.

My sincere appreciation and gratitude to Bobbie Strelow and the team that helped put this together. From the kitchen staff to the Antlers, from the center piece coordinators to the table setters from the bartenders to the program and brochure designer, from the guest greeter to the Officer Corp, Thank you all, for a most excellent job done.

After dinner our program got underway, ER. Simon Coombs opened up the evening requesting prayer from lodge Chaplin Donna Swavely and then Flag Salute led by Lodge Esquire Eric Lace.

Then turned over the ceremonials to me. After enlightening everyone of Marty’s extensive activities and responsibilities that he has had through many years at Elkdom, Marty took stage and delivered his charge and annual plan for 2024-2025 as CHEA President. We set the ground work for a pilot award program of recognition called the CHEA President’s Promoter Award. This program was developed to recognize the hard work and the love of Elkdom that one individual has in an Elks District.

In our District “The Great” Metropolitan District, the recipient chosen for the Promoter Award was nonother than our mother of Elkdom, Charlene Peale.

Gifts were given to Marty and First lady Debra from our District as presented by myself and our ER’s from the Knights Association for Marty a beautiful cutting board and carver knife, for Frist Lady Debra, our attending District E.R.’s First ladies presented her with a pair of beautiful pearl ear-rings.

Upon my announcement of attending dignitaries and Simon of the Exalted Rulers, as our ceremonial closure Randy Lewis performed a rendition of “I’m proud to be an American”, this was well received by all and lite the fire of American patriotism with in our attending Elkdom members. immediately following Randy’s performance or Lodge Chaplin was asked to perform the closing Prayer

We set the bar high letting us shine in Elkdom once again.
